

NEWSLETTER OF THE PARISHES OF BALMAIN AND ROZELLE, ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

(YEAR B) 25 July 2021

FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

Dear Parishioners,

We extend our condolences to Lester Fernandez and his family of the Rozelle Parish on the death of his father, Bruce Anthony Fernandez, last Monday 19 July 2021. Bruce died in faith, fortified by the Sacraments. A small funeral has been arranged for 30 July. Please pray for the family and friends who mourn his death and for Bruce, that through the mercy of God he may be granted eternal refreshment, light, and peace.

The lockdown of 2021 seems destined to be for a considerable period – the Premier seems to be suggesting that it will not be possible to lift all restrictions until 80% of the population is vaccinated (so-called 'herd immunity' – why can't it be 'flock immunity' a much more pleasant concept?) and this may not be done until the end of October.

In light of this development, it seems to me that we should reinstitute the programme of daily Mass and house Communions that we had during the long lockdown of 2020. Last year, we were permitted by the Archdiocese to celebrate 'private' Masses for a congregation of no more than two and, you will remember, we did this, having a Mass daily at noon in St Augustine's from Monday to Friday and, on weekends, the usual programme (5 pm, 9 am and 6 pm at Balmain and 10.30 am at Rozelle).

This year, having regard to the apparently greater seriousness of the outbreak, it would seem more prudent to have a daily Mass at noon at Balmain, including just the one Mass on Saturday and Sunday.

Although this permission has not been given specifically by the Archdiocese this time around, parishes are again permitted to 'stream' Masses, where the priest may be helped by a server and a reader. Accordingly, I am confident that by restricting attendance to two people in addition to the priest at the daily Mass, we are not defeating the purpose of the law. Indeed, one person can read the First Reading, Responsorial Psalm, and Gospel Acclamation, and the other can lead the Intercessions.

Mass can be celebrated according to the usual form in your choice of language from the following: Latin, English, Italian, or French.

There is, however, a caveat. Going to church is not one of the 'reasonable excuses' for leaving home specifically listed in the NSW Covid Restrictions but, one of the other excuses is 'for compassionate reasons'. In this context, the compassion is to be extended to the person giving his or her excuse for being out of the house by the person asking for their 'reasonable excuse', for example, a police constable. Any decision by a police person as to whether leaving one's home to attend a small private Mass at which all the Covid safety measures will be taken should be excused for compassionate reasons will be within his or her discretion and, therefore, quite unpredictable. Understandably, some parishioners may, therefore, be reluctant to come to St Augustine's for the daily Mass. In that case, they should not hesitate to request a visit by Fr Victor or me.

Fr Victor and I will be available to make pastoral visits to parishioners in their home at their request. If you ask for it, we will bring Holy Communion. We will both be carrying with us the Oil of the Sick and, of course will be happy to hear any Confessions. If you would like a visit, please ring the Parish Office and leave a message and we will contact you to work out the details.

If you would like to attend Mass (for two), please email or call Jill Ditton (jdillon@bigpond.net.au; 0419 635 761) and arrange with her a time convenient to yourself.

If you are subsequently, unable to attend at an arranged time, please let Jill know and your place will be allocated to another person.

Pastoral visits by priests are permitted under the current restrictions. I think it is time that we undertook this ministry – as I did last year during the long lockdown – especially as some of our parishioners must be feeling quite isolated.

POSTPONED EVENTS

At Home to farewell Fr Gregory, our Poetry Evening with Professor Barry Spurr, and the performance of 84 Charing Cross Road by the Hunter's Hill Theatre Company. We are also planning an evening focussing on Benedictine spirituality for the lay faithful with Sr Joanna Bagot OSB from Jamberoo Abbey. Further details of the new arrangements will be provided when the future becomes a bit more certain.

BRIEF ANSWERS TO THE BIG QUESTIONS

Q. Do the laws governing the universe allow us to predict exactly what is going to happen to us in the future? The short answer is no, and yes, in principle, the laws allow us to predict the future. But in practice the calculations are often too difficult.

- Stephen Hawking, Brief Answers to the Big Questions, 97.

PRAYER

To pray is to take notice of the wonder, to regain a sense of the mystery that animates all beings, the divine margin in all attainments. Prayer is our humble answer to the inconceivable surprise of living. It is all we can offer in return for the mystery by which we live. Who is worthy to be present at the constant unfolding of time? Amidst the meditation of mountains, the humility of flowers – wiser than all alphabets – clouds that die constantly for the sake of His glory, we are hating, hunting, hurting. Suddenly we feel ashamed of our clashes and complaints in the face of tacit glory in nature. It is so embarrassing to live! How strange we are in the world, and how presumptuous our doings! Only one response can maintain us: gratefulness for witnessing the wonder, for the gift of our unearned right to serve, to adore, and to fulfil. It is gratefulness which makes our soul great.

- Extract from Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, 'The Sigh', in John Garvey (ed), Modern Spirituality – An Anthology (Darton, Longman and Todd: London 1985), 9-10.

KNOCKING AT YOUR DOOR

Could one man
teach another man
who you are?

Could an angel explain it to another angel
or an angel to a man?

We must ask you for understanding
and seek it in you;

we must knock at your door:

only in this way
can we receive

and find,

as it is opened to us

- St Augustine, Confessions XIII, 38, in Valeria Boldoni (ed), Praying with Saint Augustine, (Triangle, London: 1987), 16
